MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. [REDACTED]

25X1A9a

SUBJECT : Annual Report (Fy 1963)

The following are matters which are recommended for the Annual Report:

1. Accomplishments:

A. This office submitted a critique on the week of crisis (Cuban), from a security standpoint, to the Executive Director. Problems and deficiencies encountered and lessons learned were set forth. Action was begun immediately and deficiencies corrected to be sure that the Office of Security can be geared on short notice to support the Agency under these conditions.

✓ B. The Security Appendix to the CIA Global War Plan for Clandestine Operations was revised to give Senior Security Officers assigned to major Office of Security wartime commands sufficient security authority as required to support such commands during general war and limited war.

✓ C. The CIA Emergency Security Patrol was reorganized in order to provide more flexibility of action and smoother command channels.

D. Contributed substantially to the development of Agency war and contingency plans by recommending specific security support requirements and procedures for inclusion in plans developed by [REDACTED] and other major agency components.
